Acupuncture Informed Consent for Treatment

I _____ the undersigned, understand that methods of treatment used in this practice may include, but are not limited to, acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, guasha, bleeding therapy, shiatsu, electro acupuncture, medical massage, and dietary advice based on Chinese medical theory.

You will be treated with the insertion of sterile, one time use disposable needles. After the needles are placed it is best not to change positions or move without assistance. Communicate freely to your acupuncturist if you are uncomfortable for any reason during your treatment.

I understand that while acupuncture is generally a safe method of treatment, certain adverse effects may result from treatment. These may be, but are not limited to fainting, some local bruising, puffiness, redness, blood, and temporary pain or discomfort at the site of the needles during or after the treatment.

Some of the potential benefits include drugless relief of presenting symptoms, improved general health, elimination of the presenting problem, reduction of pain and associated symptoms.

With this knowledge you voluntarily consent to the above procedures and are aware of the possible risks involved. You have the opportunity to discuss the consent with your acupuncturist at any time. There is no guarantee of success or effectiveness of a specific treatment or series of treatments. It is recommended that your physician be consulted for any medical concerns prior to receiving acupuncture. Your acupuncturist cannot provide a Western medical diagnosis. If you think you may have a serious health condition, you are encouraged to seek the care of your physician.

I, the patient, hereby release the clinic from any and all liability, which may occur with the above-mentioned procedures. My signature indicates that I have read and understand this consent carefully, having provided correct information about ALL of my known medical conditions to the best of my knowledge, asked any questions and have received satisfactory answers

Financial and Cancellation Policies

Dear Patient:

Thank you for choosing acupuncture to help you reach your health and wellness goals. The following is our cancellation and financial policy. Our main concern is that you receive optimal care resulting in better health. Therefore, if you have any questions or concerns about our policies, please do not hesitate to ask.

Payment for service is due at the time of service. Cash, check and credit are accepted for payment. We will be accepting insurance in the near future but for now we are able to give you a Super Bill to submit to your insurance company for reimbursement.

If you need to cancel your appointment, we kindly ask that you give 24 hours notice. Of course, life is unpredictable at times and there will be exceptions. However, if you miss an appointment and do not cancel there will be a $20 cancellation fee, which will be due at your next visit. We apologize for any inconvenience but this policy is made so other patients may benefit from your time slot if you should cancel. We appreciate your dedication to your health and the opportunity to serve you. Thank you for understanding.

Warm Regards,

M. Melissa Campbell, L.Ac., Dipl. Ac., LMT
